

Name: _____

Citizenship and Exemplary Historical Figures

| | | | |
|------------------|-----------|-------------|---------------|
| 1775 | Education | Important | Slave |
| 211 | English | Letters | Speaker |
| Advice | Equality | Navajo | Victory Medal |
| American Theater | Freedom | Rights | Volunteers |
| April | Horse | Silversmith | World War II |

Fill in the blanks with words from the word bank above. Each blank is worth 4 points.

Station 1

Growing up, Paul Revere worked as a _____. During the Revolutionary War, Paul Revere rode his _____ to deliver messages between the colonies. His most famous ride took place on _____ 18, _____.

Station 2

Sojourner Truth was a famous _____ for human rights. Sojourner Truth was also a _____ who was born with the name Isabella. Sojourner Truth spent much of her life working for _____ and _____.

Station 3

Abigail Adams wrote _____ to her husband, John Adams. Abigail Adams was extremely smart and knew how to read. She supported the formal _____ of women and equal _____ for women. When John Adams became president of the United States, he relied on Abigail for _____.

Name: _____

Station 4

The Women’s Air Force Service Pilots, or WASP, was formed during _____.

Women had not been allowed to fly military planes before there weren’t enough men. WASP’s were an _____ part of the U.S. military effort. The women who were WASP’s did not receive full recognition until 1984 when they were awarded with a World War II _____ and _____ medal.

Station 5

In 1942 there were 29 Navajo _____ chosen to develop a secret weapon; a code based on their own language. The Navajos matched Navajo words to _____ common military terms. “It goes in _____, and it comes out in

_____!”

In order to be a good citizen, I can infer that I need to...

(Your answer below is worth 20 points)
